Design Vidal

Karen has an amazing ability to see who her clients are and then show them design, tiles, textures, colors they didn't even know they were looking for. We couldn't have been more inarticulate or general about what we wanted, but we were always very adamant about what didn't work for us and she was unfailingly capable in not only navigating us through our likes and dislikes, but in also guiding us to where we really wanted to be. She is so patient, bold and flexible. And Karen made us a house that's not only the envy of our friends, but one that just makes us smile every morning we wake up in it.
